

does not at the same time grant the same increase to all other such comparable classes occupying the same salary bracket.

(b) The said Board shall, when necessary, visit the various State agencies to determine whether or not an employee is properly classified, whether or not his duties conform with his classification, and such other information as may be helpful in preparing said pay plan, and to that end the Board may require any State employee to appear before it and give evidence.

(c) The said State Employees Standard Salary Board is hereby authorized whenever in its judgment the same is warranted on account of the cost of living and the general employment conditions in the particular area, to approve increases in salaries of employees of county welfare boards created by the State Department of Public Welfare, up to but not exceeding twenty per centum (20%) over the salary fixed for such positions by said Board subject to the approval of the County Commissioners of the particular county where salaries are proposed to be increased, such increases to be prorated on the same basis as the basic salaries of such employees.

SEC. 2. And be it further enacted, That this Act shall take effect on June 1, 1957.

Approved April 10, 1957.

CHAPTER 446

(Senate Bill 97)

AN ACT establishing a public corporation to be known as the Montgomery County Revenue Authority as an instrumentality of Montgomery County and defining its membership and procedures for the conduct of its affairs; conferring thereon various powers, AND IMPOSING VARIOUS LIMITATIONS, all as expressly set forth in said Act; defining the powers and duties of the County Council of Montgomery County which relate to said Authority; granting to said Authority the power to borrow money and to issue negotiable revenue bonds, and defining and describing said bonds, all as expressly set forth in said Act; describing the resolution authorizing the issue of any of such bonds and the trust indenture to secure the same; providing for the rights and remedies of bondholders and bondholders liens resulting from an issue of any of such bonds; providing that the credit of Montgomery County shall not be pledged by the issuance of such bonds; stating methods by which said Authority shall award contracts; providing for the deposit of funds by the Authority and the examination of its books and records; limiting the power of Montgomery County to change the power of the Authority; and granting tax exemptions to the projects of the Authority and the bonds issued thereby, AND RELATING GENERALLY TO THE SAID AUTHORITY.
